Subject clarifications

Hi Joshua -- following are responses The Northern California club is not a member club, notwithstanding the website. They will be notified of the error on the website. Incidentally , it points out how little difference there is between the two types of clubs -- many don't realize they aren't " members " because they are treated in almost all respects the same as member clubs. Re: the glossary -- sanctioned clubs are not accredited -- are approved to hold matches , but have not completed the required matches. Essentially the first two groups are in the pipeline , but not yet accredited. Only the licensed and member clubs would be in the solicitable group.
