Re: MUR 7394 - Response by Mediacom Communications Corp.

Dear Ms. Ross:

MUMBAI, INDIA

The Commission should take no action against Mediacom Communications Corp. ("Mediacom") in this matter. The facts documented in this Response warrant dismissing Mediacom from the proceeding altogether. The Complaint's sole allegation against Mediacom—providing "unreimbursed use of corporate facilities or resources"—lacks factual support and substantive merit. It relies entirely on one sentence in a local news story. Mediacom confirms that it permitted Mr. O'Donnell's campaign to use a conference room in the corporation's Chester, New York headquarters building for the January 31, 2018 campaign event. However, as demonstrated below, this provision of corporate meeting space complied fully with the FECA and the Commission's rules in two material and independently dispositive ways:

1. Mediacom has provided free meeting space on a regular basis to community groups for non-commercial purposes, without regard to political affiliation, since opening this headquarters facility in 2013.³ Providing free meeting space to a federal political committee in this manner would comport with the Commission's exemptions from the definition of "contribution" and "expenditure," respectively, at 11 C.F.R. §§ 100.76 and .136.

² Complaint at 1, citing Chris McKenna, Maloney challenger opens campaign, TIMES HERALD-RECORD, Jan. 31, 2018 (online edition), at http://www.recordonline.com/news/20180131/maloney-challenger-opens-campaign.

2. From an abundance of caution, Mediacom charged $100.00 for the January 31, 2018 use of its facilities. Exhibit B presents a copy of the cancelled $100.00 check, drawn against Mr. O'Donnell's personal checking account, to document receipt of this payment.

Please let us know if you have any questions or would like to discuss this matter in greater detail.

Best regards,

David E. Frulla
