RE: MUR 7518

Dear Ms. Dennis,

We have received the complaint, MUR 7518, alleging that the Campaign to Elect Josh McCall failed to include the required "Paid for" disclosure on materials distributed to the public; i.e., yard signs and a print advertisement in The Northeast Georgia Shopper.

With respect to the yard signs, as soon as we received the complaint, the Campaign undertook, and will continue to undertake, a diligent effort to 1) put weather-proof stickers on additional sign inventory and as many signs as possible that have already been displayed, or 2) to write the "Paid for" disclosure on signs that were distributed to volunteers throughout the 9th District but not yet displayed to the public.

We also spoke with the owner of The Northeast Georgia Shopper to confirm that the ad placed there, which inadvertently did not go through our regular review process, are no longer in circulation. The ad ran in the September 19th issue, which was available until October 10th, when a new issue was released and back-issues were retrieved by the Shopper.

At this time, the Campaign will not be pursuing representation by counsel for this matter.

Thank you, and please let me know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Tiffany B. Potter

Treasurer, The Campaign to Elect Josh McCall
